Cit Germany

Gruppe II officer; commanded a II Abwehrgruppe in Tunisia, April 1943; reported at Catania in June and was still in Sicily in July; was at Sabaudia, July-August, and has since been closely concerned with the Gruppe II activities of Ast Italy; has been connected with Edo 212 since November and has dispatched a number of sabotage agents across the Allied lines; is in touch with RECHNER of the SD; is believed to have adapted a post-invasional scheme proposed to him by PAOLITTI, but turned down by Abwehr headquarters in Berlin; is known to have been concerned with large-scale sabotage operations, March 1944.

HAFN, (Baron) Wilhelm von

Cit Netherlands?

Born Rotterdam 14.10.95; Journalist; worked at Geneva before HITLER came into power; D.N.R. representative at Budapest until the summer of 1938, when he was transferred to London; left the U.K., 25.8.39, for Brussels, where he was reported in September to be in touch with the German I.S.; in October the Belgian Surete warned the Belgian Foreign Office of his activities, and in December, the authorities having refused to renew his permis de sejour, he left for The Hague, where he was reported in January 1940 to be engaged on subverting the Dutch Press; may have returned to Belgium after the German occupation; early in 1941 his employment in the Mediterranean area appears to have been under consideration and he may have gone to Italy about this time; both he and his wife (American) professed attachment to the Oxford Group, with which he was said, however, to have maintained contact on instructions from ROSENBERG; is the lover of Frau von MACKENZEN; is stated to be very anti-British, but is variously reported as a dangerous agent by one source and as a fool and gas-bag by another.
